

WS ARCHIVE

2013 (759)

▼ June (9)

▼ Jun 03 (9)

Medical School Featured in
New Television Drama

MONDAY, JUNE 3, 2013

New Life-Saving Training Coming To Area High Schools

A new life saving initiative is coming to high schools in the Rainy River district.

The ACT Foundation is offering a new CPR and defibrillator training program for students.

Executive Director Sandra Clark teachers are getting the qualification to train the students.

The initiative is also providing Atikokan High School with 2 AED training units and 15 training mannequins while Fort Frances High is getting four training units and thirty mannequins.

POSTED BY CFOB-NEWS AT 7:25 AM