

Home ▼

ACT now on CPR

☰ Category: Local News

🕒 Published: Monday, 23 October 2017 11:32

✍️ Written by Mike Aiken

Mizhakiwetung Memorial School students will be taught how to perform CPR. (File photo)

Lifesaving skills are being taught at schools in Whitedog and Grassy Narrows this week.

Instructors will be in Wabaseemoong tomorrow and at Sakatcheway School Wednesday. Students will be shown how to perform CPR, as well as the safe use of defibrillators.

Quicklinks

- Send Us Something
- Free Classifieds
- KenoraLive App
- REMR Roofing Storm Tracker
- Explorers Club Colouring Contest

Search the Biz Guide

Search...

Advanced Search

ACT High School CPR Program Innovations

Upcoming Events

Along the Road to Freedom

Funding for the lessons is being provided by a private foundation. The students use training mannequins provided by Hydro One. Ottawa schools are looking at adding defibrillators, after an eight-year-old passed away last week.

For more information:

ACT Foundation

Previous

Kenora buries time capsule

Next

Kenora welcomes Sparky

0

Community Member Perspective in Creating our 2018-2021 Strategic Plan

23 October 2017 12:00 am - 13 November

6:00 am

Online Survey

Cervical Cancer Awareness Week

23 October 2017 10:00 am - 27 October

pm

Sunset Country Family Health Team